

WHO WILL STOP THE KILLING? Ted Schempp

Acts 4:19-20

Acts 4:23-28

VERSE: Who will stop the killing
Of the helpless ones who die
Before they ever see the light of day?
Who will lay their lives
Across the battle lines
To melt a nation's heart of hardened clay?

CHORUS: Who will stop the killing?
Who will take a stand?
And who is really willing
To obey The Lord's Command?

VERSE: Hitler killed his millions
And Stalin even more
And now, we're just as guilty and insane
What will it take to shake us
From our apathetic pride
And turn "The Land of Freedom" from its shame?

Chorus

VERSE: Who will save the mothers
From scars upon their souls
Trauma from "the butchery of babes?"
Who will spare the children
For the couples who can't bear
Babies of their own, to have and hold?

Chorus

BRIDGE: Politicians stumble
When "Truth" is on the stand
No one wants to pay the price that righteousness demands
The "Slaughter of The Innocent"
They're the ones who lose
Because of their position, they don't have a right to choose

Chorus

Copyright © 1989 Edwin T. Schempp