Ted Schempp

Revelation 3:20

Revelation 19:6-10

VERSE: Throw open the windows and dance down the hall
Today is "The Day of all Days!"
The Bridegroom is coming to gather us all
He's coming so let us sing praise!

CLIMB: Praise to the One who will carry us Home
Carry us Home in His Arms
For The One who has died, is forever alive
And no longer can death do us harm!

CHORUS: So, let's Welcome the Bridegroom
O glorious Bride
Welcome the King of Creation
We'll be without blemish, and soon unified
So welcome King Jesus our Lord!

VERSE: Prepare Him a feast with the finest of things
Made with the greatest of care
There'll be room at the table for paupers and kings
Whoever has served will be there

CLIMB: Trimming the hall with evergreen boughs
Make ready The Festival Day
All is prepared to welcome Him now
So let us forever sing praise! Chorus

CLIMB: The hoofbeats of horses on the highway are heard
Soon He'll be here in glory
All is prepared to worship Him now
So let us forever sing praise! Chorus
